TOPIC.	Headquarters of Marshal Rokossowski in Warsaw, AAA near Bielann and other	2
	Military Installations
FMALLA	25X1
EVALU	PLACE OBTAINED	25X1
DATE (OF CONTENT prior to December 1951	****
DATE C	DBTAINED
REPERI	ENCES 25X1
PAGES.	2 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)
REMAR
	DO NOT CIRCULATE	mad high (Anthrit sporting) (American) terr appo
	25X1

1.	Prior to late May 1051, the headquarters of Marshal hokossowski was in a
1.	Prior to late May 1051, the headquarters of Marshal hokossowski was in a one-story building in the Belvedere Park, several hundred meters south from Belvedere accepted the control of the several hundred meters south from
1.	Belvedere castle, the residence of the Folish President, Bierut. The two buildings were guarded by sentries with green collar natabase.	· .
1.	Belvedere castle, the residence of the Folish President, Bierut. The two buildings were guarded by sentries with green collar patches. red and whit flag was on the marshal's building when he was there. Military reterrational	e
1.,	Belvedere castle, the residence of the Polish President, Bierut. The two buildings were guarded by sentries with green collar patches. The two flag was on the marshal's building when he was there. Military motor vehicle traffic on the approach road invariably was very heavy, I
	Belvedere castle, the residence of the Polish President, Bierut. The two buildings were guarded by sentries with green collar patches red and whit flag was on the marshal's building when he was there. Military motor vehicle traffic on the approach road invariably was very heavy, 1
	Belvedere castle, the residence of the Polish President, Bierut. The two buildings were guarded by sentries with green collar patches. The two buildings were guarded by sentries with green collar patches. The two buildings was on the marshal's building when he was there. Military motor vehicle traffic on the approach road invariably was very heavy. In late May 1951, large garages for military and civilian motor vehicles were on the south side of ul. Nowowiejska. No details were available. In September 1951, an installation consisting of 12 to 15 brick buildings.
2.	Belvedere castle, the residence of the Polish President, Bierut. The two buildings were guarded by sentries with green collar patches. red and whit flag was on the marshal's building when he was there. Military motor vehicle traffic on the approach road invariably was very heavy, I In late May 1951, large garages for military and civilian motor vehicles were on the south side of ul. Nowowiejska. No details were available. In September 1951, an installation consisting of 12 to 15 brick buildings, surrounded by a fence, was north of the town near the Bielany sixfold. It
2.	Belvedere castle, the residence of the Polish President, Bierut. The two buildings were guarded by sentries with green collar patches. red and whit flag was on the marshal's building when he was there. Military motor vehicle traffic on the approach road invariably was very heavy. In late May 1951, large garages for military and civilian motor vehicles were on the south side of ul. Nowowiejska. No details were available. In September 1951, an installation consisting of 12 to 15 brick buildings, surrounded by a fence, was north of the town near the Bielany airfield. It quartered an AAA unit, A total of 20 to 25 AA curs. similar to the former
2.	Belvedere castle, the residence of the Polish President, Bierut. The two buildings were guarded by sentries with green collar patches. red and whit flag was on the marshal's building when he was there. Military motor vehicle traffic on the approach road invariably was very heavy, I In late May 1951, large garages for military and civilian motor vehicles were on the south side of ul. Nowowiejska. No details were available. In September 1951, an installation consisting of 12 to 15 brick buildings, surrounded by a fence, was north of the town near the Bielany sixfold. It
2.	Belvedere castle, the residence of the Polish President, Bierut. The two buildings were guarded by sentries with green collar patches. The two buildings were guarded by sentries with green collar patches. The two buildings were guarded by sentries with green collar patches. The two buildings were guarded by sentries with green collar patches. The two buildings was on the marshal's building when he was there. Military motor vehicle traffic on the approach road invariably was very heavy. In late May 1951, large garages for military and civilian motor vehicles were on the south side of ul. Nowowiejska. No details were available. In September 1951, an installation consisting of 12 to 15 brick buildings, surrounded by a fence, was north of the town near the Bielany airfield. It quartered an AAA unit. A total of 20 to 25 AA guns, similar to the former German 88-mm AA gun, several searchlights, and 30 to h0 trucks were seen inside the fence. Prior to December 1951, a large number of parked heavy AA guns was effect.	e
2.	Belvedere castle, the residence of the Polish President, Bierut. The two buildings were guarded by sentries with green collar patches. The two buildings were guarded by sentries with green collar patches. The two buildings were guarded by sentries with green collar patches. The two buildings was on the marshal's building when he was there. Military motor vehicle traffic on the approach road invariably was very heavy. In late May 1951, large garages for military and civilian motor vehicles were on the south side of ul. Nowowiejska. No details were available. In September 1951, an installation consisting of 12 to 15 brick buildings, surrounded by a fence, was north of the town near the Bielany airfield. It quartered an AAA unit. A total of 20 to 25 AA guns, similar to the former German 88-mm AA gun, several searchlights, and 30 to h0 trucks were seen inside the fence. Prior to December 1951, a large number of parked heavy AA guns was often seen in the south town district of Sluzewies on the south side of Al Letniker.	e
2. 3.	Belvedere castle, the residence of the Polish President, Bierut. The two buildings were guarded by sentries with green collar patches. red and white flag was on the marshal's building when he was there. Military motor vehicle traffic on the approach road invariably was very heavy. I In late May 1951, large garages for military and civilian motor vehicles were on the south side of ul. Nowowiejska. No details were available. In September 1951, an installation consisting of 12 to 15 brick buildings, surrounded by a fence, was north of the town near the Bielany airfield. It quartered an AAA unit. A total of 20 to 25 AA guns, similar to the former German 88-mm AA gun, several searchlights, and 30 to h0 trucks were seen inside the fence. Prior to December 1951, a large number of parked heavy AA guns was often seen in the south town district of Bluzewies on the south side of Al. Lotnikow which continues to the west as ul. Wyscigowa.	e *
2.	Belvedere castle, the residence of the Polish President, Bierut. The two buildings were guarded by sentries with green collar patches. red and white flag was on the marshal's building when he was there. Military motor vehicle traffic on the approach road invariably was very heavy. I In late May 1951, large garages for military and civilian motor vehicles were on the south side of ul. Nowowiejska. No details were available. In September 1951, an installation consisting of 12 to 15 brick buildings, surrounded by a fence, was north of the town near the Bielany airfield. It quartered an AAA unit. A total of 20 to 25 AA guns, similar to the former German 88-mm AA gun, several searchlights, and 30 to h0 trucks were seen inside the fence. Prior to December 1951, a large number of parked heavy AA guns was often seen in the south town district of Sluzewies on the south side of Al.Lotnikow which continues to the west as ul. Wyscigowa. Prior to March 1951, German and Polish convicts were transported from convict camps near Warsaw to industrial centers in Upper Silesia. Some who were not	e *
2. 3.	Belvedere castle, the residence of the Polish President, Bierut. The two buildings were guarded by sentries with green collar patches. red and white flag was on the marshal's building when he was there. Military motor vehicle traffic on the approach road invariably was very heavy. I In late May 1951, large garages for military and civilian motor vehicles were on the south side of ul. Nowowiejska. No details were available. In September 1951, an installation consisting of 12 to 15 brick buildings, surrounded by a fence, was north of the town near the Bielany airfield. It quartered an AAA unit. A total of 20 to 25 AA guns, similar to the former German 88-mm AA gun, several searchlights, and 30 to h0 trucks were seen inside the fence. Prior to December 1951, a large number of parked heavy AA guns was often seen in the south town district of Sluzewies on the south side of Al.Lotnikow which continues to the west as ul. Wyscigowa. Prior to March 1951, German and Polish convicts were transcorted from convict camps near Warsaw to industrial centers in Upper Silesia. Some who were sent back because of illness reported that soldiers were employed in all the minor	e *
2. 3.	Belvedere castle, the residence of the Polish President, Bierut. The two buildings were guarded by sentries with green collar patches. red and whit flag was on the marshal's building when he was there. Military motor vehicle traffic on the approach road invariably was very heavy. I In late May 1051, large garages for military and civilian motor vehicles were on the south side of ul. Nowowiejska. No details were available. In September 1051, an installation consisting of 12 to 15 brick buildings, surrounded by a fence, was north of the town near the Bielany airfield. It quartered an AAA unit. A total of 20 to 25 AA guns, similar to the former German 88-mm AA gun, several searchlights, and 30 to h0 trucks were seen inside the fence. Prior to December 1951, a large number of parked heavy AA guns was often seen in the south town districts of Bluzewics on the south side of Al. Lotnikow which continues to the west as ul. Wyscigowa. Prior to March 1051, German and Polish convicts were transported from convict camps near Warsaw to industrial centers in Upper Silesia. Some who were sent back because of illness reported that soldiers were employed in all the mines known to them. After finishing six monthaof basic military training the	e *
2. 3.	Belvedere castle, the residence of the Polish President, Bierut. The two buildings were guarded by sentries with green collar patches. red and white flag was on the marshal's building when he was there. Military motor vehicle traffic on the approach road invariably was very heavy. I In late May 1951, large garages for military and civilian motor vehicles were on the south side of ul. Nowowiejska. No details were available. In September 1951, an installation consisting of 12 to 15 brick buildings, surrounded by a fence, was north of the town near the Bielany airfield. It quartered an AAA unit. A total of 20 to 25 AA guns, similar to the former German 88-mm AA gun, several searchlights, and 30 to h0 trucks were seen inside the fence. Prior to December 1951, a large number of parked heavy AA guns was often seen in the south town district of Sluzewies on the south side of Al.Lotnikow which continues to the west as ul. Wyscigowa. Prior to March 1951, German and Polish convicts were transcorted from convict camps near Warsaw to industrial centers in Upper Silesia. Some who were sent back because of illness reported that soldiers were employed in all the minor	e *
2. 3.	Belvedere castle, the residence of the Polish President, Bierut. The two buildings were guarded by sentries with green collar patches. red and whit flag was on the marshal's building when he was there. Military motor vehicle traffic on the approach road invariably was very heavy. I In late May 1051, large garages for military and civilian motor vehicles were on the south side of ul. Nowowiejska. No details were available. In September 1051, an installation consisting of 12 to 15 brick buildings, surrounded by a fence, was north of the town near the Bielany airfield. It quartered an AAA unit. A total of 20 to 25 AA guns, similar to the former German 88-mm AA gun, several searchlights, and 30 to h0 trucks were seen inside the fence. Prior to December 1951, a large number of parked heavy AA guns was often seen in the south town districts of Bluzewics on the south side of Al. Lotnikow which continues to the west as ul. Wyscigowa. Prior to March 1051, German and Polish convicts were transported from convict camps near Warsaw to industrial centers in Upper Silesia. Some who were sent back because of illness reported that soldiers were employed in all the mines known to them. After finishing six monthaof basic military training the	e *
2. 3.	Belvedere castle, the residence of the Polish President, Bierut. The two buildings were guarded by sentries with green collar patches. red and whit flag was on the marshal's building when he was there. Military motor vehicle traffic on the approach road invariably was very heavy. I In late May 1951, large garages for military and civilian motor vehicles were on the south side of ul. Nowowiejska. No details were available. In September 1951, an installation consisting of 12 to 15 brick buildings, surrounded by a fence, was north of the town near the Bielany airfield. It quartered an AAA unit. A total of 20 to 25 AA guns, similar to the former German 88-mm AA gun, several searchlights, and 30 to h0 trucks were seen inside the fence. Prior to December 1951, a large number of parked heavy AA guns was often seen in the south town district of Bluzewies on the south side of Al.Lotnikow which continues to the west as ul. Wyscigowa. Prior to March 1951, German and Polish convicts were transported from convict camps near Warsaw to industrial centers in Upper Silesia. Some who were sent back because of illness reported that soldiers were employed in all the mines known to them. After finishing six months of basic military training, the soldiers had been forced to serve in the mines for 12 months. 4 cap visors for officers and other grades were made of black inpaned plastic.	2
2. 3.	Belvedere castle, the residence of the Polish President, Bierric. The two buildings were guarded by sentries with green collar patches. red and whit flag was on the marshal's building when he was there. Military motor vehicle traffic on the approach road invariably was very heavy. In late May 1°51, large garages for military and civilian motor vehicles were on the south side of ul. Nowowiejska. No details were available. In September 1°51, an installation consisting of 12 to 15 brick buildings, surrounded by a fence, was north of the town near the Bielany airfield. It quartered an AAA unit. A total of 20 to 25 AA guns, similar to the former German 88-mm AA gun, several searchlights, and 30 to h0 trucks were seen inside the fence. Prior to December 1951, a large number of parked heavy AA guns was often seen in the south town districts of Bluzevies on the south side of Al. Lotnikow which continues to the west as ul. Wyscigowa. Prior to March 1°51, German and Polish convicts were transported from convict cames near Warsaw to industrial centers in Upper Silesia. Some who were sent back because of illness reported that soldiers were employed in all the mines known to them. After finishing six months basic military training, the soldiers had been forced to serve in the mines for 12 months. It can be a soldiers had been forced to serve in the mines for 12 months. It with an inserted brass edge. The chin strap was of black leather with a brick with an inserted brass edge. The chin strap was of black leather with a brick with an inserted brass edge. The chin strap was of black leather with a brick with an inserted brass edge. The chin strap was of black leather with a brick with an inserted brass edge.	2
2. 3.	Belvedere castle, the residence of the Polish President, Bierut. The two buildings were guarded by sentries with green collar patches. red and whit flag was on the marshal's building when he was there. Military notor vehicle traffic on the approach road invariably was very heavy. I In late May 1951, large garages for military and civilian motor vehicles were on the south side of ul. Nowowiejska. No details were available. In September 1951, an installation consisting of 12 to 15 brick buildings, surrounded by a fence, was north of the town near the Bielany airfield. It quartered an AAA unit. A total of 20 to 25 AA guns, similar to the former German 88-mm AA gun, several searchlights, and 30 to h0 trucks were seen inside the fence. Prior to December 1951, a large number of parked heavy AA guns was often seen in the south town district of Sluzewies on the south side of Al.Lotnikow which continues to the west as ul. Wyscigowa. I have been seen were an and Polish convicts were transported from convict camps near Warsaw to industrial centers in Upper Silesia. Some who were sent back because of illness reported that soldiers were employed in all the mines known to them. After finishing six months of basic military training, the soldiers had been forced to serve in the mines for 12 months. I cap visors for officers and other grades were made of black japaned plastic with an inserted brase edge. The chin stran was of black leather with 2 brigh buttons on the sides. Officers seaps were of stockinet and wer fitted with a twisted cord for chin strans. They were delivered without brase edges. The	2
2. 3.	Belvedere castle, the residence of the Polish President, Bierric. The two buildings were guarded by sentries with green collar patches. red and whit flag was on the marshal's building when he was there. Military motor vehicle traffic on the approach road invariably was very heavy. In late May 1°51, large garages for military and civilian motor vehicles were on the south side of ul. Nowowiejska. No details were available. In September 1°51, an installation consisting of 12 to 15 brick buildings, surrounded by a fence, was north of the town near the Bielany airfield. It quartered an AAA unit. A total of 20 to 25 AA guns, similar to the former German 88-mm AA gun, several searchlights, and 30 to h0 trucks were seen inside the fence. Prior to December 1951, a large number of parked heavy AA guns was often seen in the south town districts of Bluzevies on the south side of Al. Lotnikow which continues to the west as ul. Wyscigowa. Prior to March 1°51, German and Polish convicts were transported from convict cames near Warsaw to industrial centers in Upper Silesia. Some who were sent back because of illness reported that soldiers were employed in all the mines known to them. After finishing six months basic military training, the soldiers had been forced to serve in the mines for 12 months. It can be a soldiers had been forced to serve in the mines for 12 months. It with an inserted brass edge. The chin strap was of black leather with a brick with an inserted brass edge. The chin strap was of black leather with a brick with an inserted brass edge. The chin strap was of black leather with a brick with an inserted brass edge. The chin strap was of black leather with a brick with an inserted brass edge.	2

Approved For Release 2003/08/12 : CIA-RDP82-00457R015600430004-2

25X1

25X1

25X1 25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1

	COMPIDENTIALY
	₩ 2 m
1.	Comment. The green service color was previously reported with WOP. The unit mentioned here apparently is a special guard unit.
۶,	Commento An AAA barracks installation near Bielany airfield was reported in the fall of 1951. Although this installation had modern three-story buildings instead of low brick or wooden buildings, it is believed to be the installation mentioned in the present report. See
3,	Comment. This parking area is believed to belong to the Basa Arsenal in the Sluzewicc town district.
4.	Commento Employment of military labor units in the Upper Silesian mines has been repeatedly reported. The personnel of these units includes those who are politically unreliable and other persons serving a kind of substitute military service which is provided by lawore.
5.	Comment. Other service colors known are sky-blue for the air force and black for antitank units.

CONFIDENTIAL